

Residency Standards

The Dori

Apartment Homes

Thank you for your application! To assist you with your decision on your new home, we are providing a list of guidelines used to qualify applicants for residency in our communities. Nothing contained in these requirements shall constitute representation by Quarterra that all residents and occupants currently residing in our community have met or currently meet these guidelines.

Quarterra utilizes a 3rd party vendor, VERO, to verify certain proof of income documents. If applicable, please allow up to 5 business days for their review to be finalized. Qualification standards include but are not limited to the following criteria.

IDENTIFICATION. Each applicant who is 18 years of age or older, or an emancipated minor with written proof of legal emancipation, must complete an application and be qualified in accordance with these residency standards.

All applicants are required to provide a valid government-issued photo ID at the time the application is submitted to our screening partner, VERO. As part of our screening process, we verify and validate applicant identities. We attempt to complete this process electronically based on the name, address, date of birth and other identifying biometric information.

INCOME. The gross monthly income of all Leaseholders will be considered jointly (combined) and must equal no less than three (3) times the monthly market rental rate of the apartment. If your proof of income cannot be validated, your application will result in a denial. If an applicant does not meet the income requirements, a qualified guarantor must be obtained, or the applicant may be denied.

There are three (3) ways to verify income with VERO.

- 1) By connecting to an employer or payroll provider; or
- 2) By connecting to a bank account; or
- 3) By uploading a W2/1099 and the last 3 paystubs

Additional lawful, verifiable income documents may be accepted as proof of income. Please see your Leasing Professional for a comprehensive list.

GUARANTORS. If an applicant does not meet the income requirements, a qualified guarantor must be obtained, or the applicant may be denied. The guarantor must pay an application processing fee and sign a Guarantor Addendum. The gross monthly income of a Guarantor must be equal to or more than 4 times the monthly market rental rate of the apartment. The above-mentioned income verification and credit history parameters will also apply to guarantors. Guarantors must have a US bank account.

CREDIT HISTORY. Our credit reporting agency evaluates credit and rental history against indicators of future rental payment performance including but not limited to credit score, unsatisfactory credit history, unpaid rental and utility debts, collection accounts, rental history, mortgage history, and previous bankruptcy. Negative findings may result in the requirement of an additional deposit or fee, guarantor, or denial. Applicants with no credit may apply with a qualified guarantor.

Where applicable, Covid-19 related debt or evictions will not be a factor in determining the approval status of your application.

Denials will result for the following (but not limited to):

- Rental score under 555
- Utility collection (includes phone and internet) over $250
- Open Bankruptcy/Dismissed Bankruptcy within the last 12 months
- Open Tax Lien
- Unpaid rental debt over $100
- Open Repossession

Our rental score ranges for approval consideration are as follows:

- 650 and above- Approved
- 556-649- Conditional
- 555 and under- Declined

A conditional rental score or no rental score may result in the requirement of an additional deposit or fee, or a qualified guarantor.

RENTAL HISTORY. Our screening company will review your rental history. Denials will result for the following (but may not be limited to):

- Unpaid rental balance over $100
- Adjudicated eviction within 3 years
- Two (2) dismissed evictions within 3 years
- Under current eviction

CRIMINAL HISTORY. History which indicates that an applicant's residency would constitute a direct threat to the health or safety of other individuals or whose residency would result in substantial physical damage to the property of owner or others may result in rejection of the application. Such criminal history may include, but is not limited to:

1. Recommend Denial for felony or misdemeanor offenses, if less than twenty (20) years from conviction or other adjudication of the offense or five (5) years from completion of sentence for: homicide; arson; burglary; assault; kidnapping; manufacture or distribution of controlled substance, sexual offenses (including sex offenders subject to a lifetime registration requirement) or other crimes against persons.
2. Recommend Denial for felony and misdemeanor offenses, if less than ten (10) years from conviction or other adjudication of the offense or five (5) years from the completion of sentence involving possession of controlled substances, forgery, embezzlement, theft of property, damage to property or other crimes against property, and weapons offenses.

Applicants who are denied may submit, within fourteen (14) days of the denial, verifiable evidence of mitigating factors for additional assessment including (by way of example, with no single factor being determinative): the facts or circumstances surrounding the criminal conduct; the age of the individual at the time of the conduct; evidence that the individual has maintained a good tenant history before and/or after the conviction or conduct; evidence of rehabilitation efforts and/or any other factors related to whether a specific person poses any threat to safety.

In the event your name appears on the OFAC list (Office of Foreign Assets Control), your application will be denied in accordance with federal law. Any preliminary approval based on your screening is conditional. Final approval is subject to the OFAC screen, and any other requirements listed in the Residency Standards.

OCCUPANCY GUIDELINES. The maximum number of residents permitted to live in an apartment shall not exceed two (2) per bedroom. The only exception is anyone protected as familial status under the Federal Fair Housing Guidelines. In this case, we will allow 2 per bedroom, plus one in the apartment home. Familial Status includes individuals who are under the age of 18, a person who is pregnant, or who is in the process of securing legal custody of a person under 18. A newborn under 24 months will not be included in the headcount for occupancy limits.

DENIAL OF APPLICATION. You understand that if you do not meet our rental selection criteria, or if you fail to answer any question or give false information, we may reject your application, retain application fees, and possibly all or a portion of the application deposit as liquidated damages for our time and expense. In the event your application fee, deposit, or any other upfront fee is returned as an “NSF”, your application and residency will be denied, and the balance will be reported to the credit agency. Providing falsified or fraudulent information, and if your upfront fees/deposits were returned as an NSF, you will be disqualified from reapplying at an Quarterra community for a minimum of one year following the denied application.

If you fail to sign your Lease after approval or cancel your lease after 3 (three) days after approval:
Unless we authorize otherwise in writing, you and all co-applicants must sign the Lease within 3 days after we give you our approval in person, email or by telephone. If you or any co-applicant fails to sign as required, your application will be deemed withdrawn, and we may keep the application fee, application deposit/admin fee as liquidated damages and terminate all further obligations under this Agreement.
